

Snow Trains Bring Huge Crowds

3-Day Carnival To Start Friday

CARNIVAL PLANS SET FOR FEBRUARY 10, 11 AND 12

Probably what was the most colorful and jolly crowd ever to come to Grayling for winter sports was that of last Sunday. The noon train brought in 596 passengers from Flint, which was followed an hour later by the Detroit train with 725 passengers. And throughout the day autos were arriving in great numbers.

The day was perfect for winter sports and a large crowd of Graylingites with Queen Frances and her court were on hand to greet the visitors. And Grayling's school band set the crowd stepping as they alighted from the trains. These youngsters, under direction of Herbert Rowland, amazed everyone when it was learned that they had only been organized since October. It is a fine musical organization of which the people of Grayling, besides the schools, have much pride.

Big buses and trucks soon whisked the crowds to the winter park and skates, skis and toboggans were soon in full activity. The Flint train was sponsored by the Flint Chamber of Commerce and carried officials of that organization including the secretary, Norman Hill, former secretary to ex-Governor Frank Murphy. Railroad officials stated a great number of fans were turned away at the station in Flint due to lack of space on the 13-car train carrying nearly 600 people.

The Detroit train was also 13 cars long and contained approximately 700 enthusiasts. Weather conditions were ideal, and the Winter Sports park contained a crowd estimated at more than 3,000, that took advantage of the glassy-smooth skating rink and the fast, breath-taking toboggan slides.

Hikers On Train
Temperatures hovered a little below freezing, and a slight wind brought color to thousands of cheeks that already were flushed with the thrill of speeding down 2,000 feet of toboggan chutes all afternoon.

The Detroit train carried one car filled with Detroit News hikers, members of Unit Six. The Hike Club of Flint also had a group on their train.

Winter Sports Queen Frances Entsminger and her court greeted train arrivals, and the Grayling school band again made the frost-laden air ring with stirring music. Officials of Grayling Winter Sports, Inc., anticipated a record-breaking crowd for the annual Snow Carnival next Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 10th, 11th and 12th. Workmen are busy preparing additional toboggan troughs to accommodate the huge throngs who have so far taxed the capacity of the chutes now in operation.

3 Snow Trains Scheduled
Three snow trains are expected next Sunday, two from Detroit and one from Bay City and Saginaw, sponsored by the Kirby Travel Bureau and Jack Davis, of Bay City, respectively.

Winter Sports Notes

Associate Editor Earl Chapman headed a group of executives and other employees of the Flint Journal.

Among those here Sunday were Ed Lewis, promoter, Lou Markowitz, publicity director and Lou Newman, matchmaker, all of the Arena Gardens, Detroit. These men were guests of "Birdie" Tebbetts and "Spike" McNeven.

The pleasure of the skaters was stimulated when Donald G. Vizen and Bob Fisher, skating instructors of Traverse City took charge. There was skating in single, double and triple files, platoons, groups, and other formations, including whirligigs. The crowd liked it and seemed to be having a great time. Mr. Jack Sanders of Traverse City of the sound booth didn't miss a note and provided skating music by some of the leading composers. Some of the records were loaned to the Winter Sports committee by the Arena Gardens of Detroit.

Mr. Sanders of the sound booth was kept busy announcing "Joists" and "found", including husbands and wives and sweethearts. He was very generous in accommodating every request for aid.

The annual winter carnival starts next Friday. The queen's banquet usually scheduled for that night was given Wednesday evening instead and was sponsored by the Kiwanis club.

All plans for activities of the Snow Queen and her court are under the supervision of the Queen's committee comprised of Mrs. Stanley Stealy, chairman; Mrs. William Hill, Miss Margarette Bauman, Mrs. Frank Bond and Miss Eleanor Tumath.

Coronation ceremonies are scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 11 and will be held in the high school auditorium. An elaborate ceremony is in the making.

Snow trains from Detroit, Bay City and Saginaw and Flint are scheduled for next Sunday. Big crowds are expected from each city.

The Flint train last Sunday carried 596 paid passengers; the Detroit train had 721. There were 13 coaches on each train.

The toboggan slides were taxed to capacity last Sunday, when there were 4,731 slides down the slippery ice lanes. It is expected that two additional slides will be put into operation for next Sunday.

Don't forget the queen's ball at the school gym next Saturday evening.

Some of the Boy Scouts' snowmen fared badly Sunday when rowdies seemed to take delight in pushing them over or knocking off the heads. While some of the snowman attempts were anything but good, still there are a number that show excellent taste and skill in construction.

The saddle ski contest scheduled for Sunday afternoon promises to be an exciting affair. It will take place near the small ski jump at 3:00 p. m.

The decorations at the winter park are more beautiful this year than at any time in its history. There are hundreds of small Christmas trees throughout the grounds; arches are wound with cedar and the ice castle is the most classical ever presented. Last Sunday the latter was but about a third completed, still it awed the spectators by its grandeur. When completed, which will be this week, its color and lighting effects should prove wonderful. Near the entrance to the park, members of Hartwick Pines CCC camp are building a huge snowman.

Whether the day is stinging cold or moderate, the shelter buildings are adequate to take care of the crowds, where they may get warm and rest if desired.

Big Crowd At Mass Meeting Tues.

ZEELAND MEN TELL OF THEIR EXPERIENCES

Grayling Chamber of Commerce held a mass meeting Tuesday evening at Temple theatre for the purpose of enabling the public to hear talks on the proposed municipal electric plant for Grayling.

President Harley Russell was in charge of the meeting and introduced the speakers. The first speaker was Garrett N. Clark, city attorney of Zeeland, a city of about 2,500. Mr. Clark told of some of the things Zeeland was proud of, one of which was their municipal electric plant. He explained that the city officials and the general public was in no way dissatisfied with the service the Consumers Power Co. was providing them, except there was complaint about the rates charged.

A special election was held and carried and now the people of Zeeland are enjoying the best of electric service with no interruptions, and with steady, continuous electricity, at a great saving in cost. Their rates start with 4c for the first 50 kwh and drops to 2½c and 1½c. They have operated their plant since October, 1937. In competition with the Consumers Co. they get more than 80% of the electric business in Zeeland. In fact they started out with one Diesel engine and generator and have had to increase this unit to three engines and generators.

A. VanKoevever, publisher of the Zeeland Record, told of how he at first was skeptical over the proposal to construct the municipal electric plant and, before he endorsed it, made a trip to Lansing in order to inspect the records in the offices of the Public Utilities Commission and found that his people had been paying far too much for their electric service. Three large electric public utility companies operate in or near Zeeland and their effort to purchase electricity from them at wholesale failed. Then he said he was convinced that a municipal plant was justified. The success of the plant has exceeded his expectations. Even the first year and in spite of buying their plant piecemeal, it has given them brilliant street lights, excellent power and first class service and besides they made a handsome profit.

Garret P. Rooks, city superintendent of Zeeland, gave a resume of the operations of their municipal plant, and answered many questions.

Mr. Norris of the engineering firm of Ayers, Lewis, Norris, and May, explained how that firm had secured its information regarding Grayling and based their opinion that Grayling should own and operate its own municipal light and power plant. He too answered many questions.

All these talks were just plain discussions of the question that is soon to be voted on by the people. No attempt was made at high powered salesmanship. Knowing Mr. VanKoevever of Zeeland as we do, his words alone would convince us that the election should carry in favor of municipal ownership. We know positively that he wouldn't make a statement that would be questioned by anyone who knows him, and especially the people of Zeeland who know him so well.

Queen's Ball, School Gym Next Sat. Night

The annual Queen's Ball will be held Saturday evening at the high school gymnasium, with music furnished by the Melody Makers of Lake City. At ten o'clock the coronation ceremonies will take place and promises to be one of the highlights of Grayling's annual Winter Sports Carnival.

Grayling's lovely Snow Queen, Frances Entsminger, gowned in white net and taffeta, will be followed to the throne by the court pages, who will be little Norma Lee Crawford and Betty Jean Mathewson. The queen's court Pauline Merrill, maid-in-waiting, Roberta Austin, Gloria LaMotte and Norberta Weiss will follow. The gowns worn by members of the court will be crisp taffeta and will be a beautiful rainbow of color. Little Larry McNamara will wear the crown to the throne where the coronation will take place.

Queen Frances is very unfortunate to be without one of the members of her court, Hazel Wilkins, who was taken to Mercy Hospital Saturday and submitted to an appendectomy.

The building of the throne for the coronation is in progress under the supervision of Joseph Stripe, manual arts teacher.

The admission price for the ball is 50c per person. You are welcome in your Winter Sports costumes or anything you may care to wear.

Kiwanis Honors Queen With Dinner Dance

The queen and her court were guests of honor at a fine banquet and dancing party given by the Kiwanis Club at Shoppenagons Inn Wednesday night.

The tables were arranged in "U" shape with the end table reserved for the queen, her court and their escorts. The tables had been very cleverly decorated for the occasion. In the center of the honor guests' table was a miniature ice rink with a large sized girl in skating costume in an action pose. The long tables had alternating ice rinks and snowbanks with penguins skating or carrying skis, their red scarfs flying in the breeze; small frost covered pine trees also added to the attractive decorations.

Mr. Charles Moore, president of the Kiwanis Club presided, welcoming the guests and introducing the president of Winter Sports, Inc., Mr. Emil Giegling, who in turn presented the queen, Miss Frances Entsminger. Miss Entsminger then introduced her court. The young ladies were presented with compacts by Mr. Giegling in appreciation of their efforts in helping to make 1939 Winter Sports a success.

Two violin solos were played by Miss Betty Parsons which were well received. Mrs. Roy Milnes and Mrs. Harold Jarmin rendered two vocal selections that brought rounds of applause. All the numbers were accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. G. Clippert.

A beautiful cake donated by Mr. Charles Melichar of the Grayling Bakery was brought in by the waiters and presented to the queen, who very graciously cut the first piece and placed it on the plate of Mr. Chas. Moore.

Throughout the banquet song leader Dr. C. G. Clippert, kept the crowd in a cheerful mood singing while Mrs. Clippert accompanied on the piano. Mr. Moore thanked the different committees for their fine cooperation in helping to make the banquet such a lovely affair. The Queen's Committee included Mrs. Stanley Stealy, Mrs. Frank Bond, Mrs. Roy Milnes, Mrs. Emil Giegling, Miss Margarette Bauman, and Miss Eleanor Tumath. The arrangement of the banquet tables was done by Mrs. Roy Milnes and Miss Bauman. The Winter Sports committee is made up of Mr. Emil Giegling, president; Mr. Wm. Hill, Mr. Roy Trudgeon, and Mr. C. J. McNamara.

Later in the evening colored films of winter sports were shown by Mr. L. Kramer, which were enjoyed by everyone.

The banquet started off the Carnival week with a bang and the Kiwanis club are to be congratulated for its success.

Annual Junior Play Wed. Feb. 15th

Next Wednesday, February 15, the Junior Class of G. H. S. will present their annual play "Aunt Susie Shoots The Works". Originally scheduled for an earlier date this play promises to be well worth the delay that was caused by the illness prevalent in Grayling.

With an abandoned house adjacent to a deserted sausage factory as a setting; an old maid man-hater with a yen for power as one of the characters; a few mysterious happenings for excitement; and even a dog thrown in (not in the sausage works) for good measure; this play promises to really click.

The list of characters is as follows:

Aunt Susie Stone—V. Peterson.
Joy Herbert—R. Burrows.
Scarlet Deane—A. Laage.
Laura Dawson—V. McEvers.
Madame Lola—N. Peterson.
Mrs. Ed. Dunning—M. J. Joseph.

Special Election Notes

According to Engineer Norris, who made the survey for the city on the electric situation, he says that there has never been a modern municipal electric plant to sell out or discontinue business in Michigan.

According to City Manager Granger, the M. P. S. Co. received an income last year of about $38,900, instead of $35,197 the Company claims it to have been. At the urge of local manager Don Sweeney, Mr. Granger says he went over the Company's records with Mr. Sweeney several weeks ago, and together they checked over every month's record and the figures were read off to the office bookkeeper and they totaled $38,900. Now who are you going to believe, the Company or Mr. Granger, who has always had a reputation for integrity? Don't let the M. P. S. Co. fool you with their twisted figures. And don't take their circular statements too seriously. They seem to contain many misleading statements.

Why wouldn't local electricity users prefer service from their own electric plant instead of from an outsider? Profits from a local plant remain in Grayling. Besides 10% lower rates, as planned, is a big inducement to hook up with the local plant.

Naturally the M. P. S. is fighting to keep out municipal competition. They hope to continue their poor service and high rates by keeping out a municipal plant. If Grayling had been given the kind of service they deserved they wouldn't be facing this special election at this time. The Company paid little or no attention to local complaints except to make promises that were not fulfilled. Now they are promising again to put their lines in order. Just another promise, no doubt.

How is it that so many customers are getting their light bills lowered or cut in half just at present as some will testify. How is it that one user who's usual bill amounting to over $40 got a bill for the next month of $2.06? Inconsistent, isn't it. This man happens to be on the council.

City Attorney Moore says "let's have an honest campaign." We fully believe this election is going to carry and the M. P. S. Co. is doing everything they can to stop it. If the election fails, we will be assured of the same kind of undependable service we have been having for several years past—irregular voltage, shimmering and fading lights and power. Let's get behind this proposition and have a modern up-to-date light and power plant and distribution system with lower rates and better service as 40 or 50 other Michigan cities have done in the last few years.

Saddle Ski Contest Sunday, 3:00 P. M.

The first annual Northern Michigan Saddle Ski contest will be held at Winter Sports park Sunday, February 12th, at 3:00 p. m. An official course has been measured off on the hill beside the junior ski jump and entries are announced from upstate towns including Elberta and Frankfort, where this type of sport has been popular.

Local entries can be made at the park, Johnson's Furniture Co., and at the high school. The champion and runner-up will be presented with a special champion's model Saddle Ski and the title "Saddle Ski Champion of Northern Michigan" by "Birdie" Tebbetts of the Detroit Tigers, who will act as official judge of the contest.

Local boys are urged to make their entries early this week end. Saddle Skis can be obtained from Mr. Cornell at the high school, and Mr. Johnson at the park for practice over the course this week. The classes are as follows:

Junior Boys Class—Boys up to and through the 8th Grade.
Senior Boys Class—Boys over the 8th Grade.

A special class for girls will be made if the number of entries justify it.

THE REPORT IS CORRECT

If the revenue from the local electric light plant is $38,000, according to the records in the office of the Michigan Public Utilities commission, and the new Grayling plant should secure 80% of the business, some are wondering how the circular published last week could claim $35,000 in receipts.

80% of $38,000 would be $30,400, but it is a foregone conclusion that the local plant would secure practically 100% of the commercial accounts which accounts would run far in excess of an equal number of residential rentals. In fact 20% of the patrons, according to City Manager George Granger, pay more than 50% of the local plant's income. A commercial electricity user paying $25.00 monthly would equal that of five residential users at $5.00 per month. Thus it is plain to be seen that Mr. Granger's estimate that 80% of the electrical business should bring in revenue amounting to about $35,000 or more is correct.

Anyone wishing to hand in an article for or against the proposed light and power plant are welcome to do so. Please have your copy in early. All letters must be signed but your name will not appear if you request it.

C. of C. Complimenting "Birdie" Tebbetts

A testimonial banquet has been announced by the Grayling Chamber of Commerce to compliment George "Birdie" Tebbetts, catcher of the Detroit Tigers Baseball Club. Through the efforts of "Spike" McNeven, "Birdie" has spent the winter in the community and participated in numerous civic activities and outside interests which has provided Grayling with good publicity. Besides his work with the local Boy Scout troop, he has aided the winter sports program, and refereed high school and independent basketball games throughout northern Michigan.

The banquet will be held at the Shoppenagons Inn on Thursday, February 16th and limited to the capacity of the hotel to 50 couples. Few reservations remain, and the affair is restricted to Chamber of Commerce members and friends of "Birdie." A good program is assured to attract unusual interest and following the banquet dancing will be the order for the rest of the evening. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Three Deuces.

Through the courtesy of the Rialto Theatre a special showing of the popular four-reel baseball film "First Century of Baseball" will be presented at the Rialto Theatre prior to the banquet on February 18th, at 5:00 p. m. The film was secured by special arrangement with the American League of Professional Baseball Clubs, and the Chamber of Commerce feels fortunate in securing this picture because of the big demands by the many city organizations for the film. This is the first time any such baseball film of the American League has been shown in northern Michigan.

Admittance is open to all Chamber of Commerce members holding banquet tickets, and any baseball minded citizen of Grayling who desires to see the film. High school students wishing to see the show should contact Coach Willard Cornell for admittance.

Written and supervised by Lew Fonseca, director of promotion for the American League, "First Century of Baseball," the fifth of a series produced and distributed in as many years, is an entirely new production. To obtain the highest professional standards in the matter of photography, make-up and costuming, the historical portions were filmed in Hollywood. Narration, save where the voices of characters appearing on the screen have been recorded, is by Ted Husing.

Assembling at the Queen's home at 8:00 the crowd went to the Winter Sports park, for a couple of hours of skating and tobogganing. Returning later in the evening games were enjoyed with Earl Gierke of Saginaw, and Benedict Morris carrying off the honors. Then the party went Hollywood, when each one received a banner bearing the name of a famous movie star or radio star or what have you. These were pinned on their backs and were worn all evening and each one had to act like the person after whom they were named.

After coming from the park appetites were sharpened and so a delicious buffet lunch was much enjoyed, the boys finding their partners by way of numbers. Fred Smith and Dale Urvine of Bay City joined the party at 11:45 and all went to the Horseshoe Lake dance pavilion. The crowd there was awed when they discovered there were so many stars among them. The evening ended at Hanson's Cafe where several tables were joined together, and they ate again and made merry.

Public Notice

Taxpayers and Electric Light Customers of Grayling:

Wednesday morning, February 8, a piece of literature was distributed to the people of Grayling through the mail. This pamphlet, if you believe all that is printed on it, would lead you to believe that a municipal plant in Grayling would be a losing proposition. It is true that the revenue of the present system is as reported in this pamphlet, but they fail to tell you the revenue for 1938 was $38,950. I personally inspected the books of the Michigan Public Service Company for the year 1938 at the invitation of Mr. Sweeney, the local manager. The Michigan Public Service Company would lead you to believe that eighty per cent of the customers is eighty per cent of the revenue, but the only way this could possibly be true would be if every customer in town paid exactly the same amount of money each month for light and power service.

From a recent house to house survey for the month of September the City found that there were 545 customers in the city, ninety-one were found to be commercial customers or less than twenty per cent of the total customers. They pay slightly over fifty per cent of the annual revenue. The balance of the customers, or the remaining eighty per cent, pay slightly less than fifty per cent of the annual revenue. From the above survey you will readily understand that it is not necessary for a city owned plant to obtain eighty per cent of the customers to receive eighty per cent of the revenue.

From the experiences of the City of Zeeland, it was found when the city plant started operations in November, 1937, that the first customers to charge to city service were the commercial customers, and today after fifteen months' operation the City of Zeeland Light and Power Plant is carrying approximately eighty-five per cent to ninety per cent of the entire load and are connecting up the balance just as fast as humanly possible.

Michigan Public Service would lead you to believe that the city will continue to pay them $4,500 per year even though we have our own light and power plant. They would have you believe that the citizens of Grayling would continue to patronize them when the city has its own plant which will give much better service at lower rates. They would lead you to believe that the revenue in the City of Grayling is only $35,197 for 1938 but an actual house to house survey conducted by the City showed that the customers actually paid approximately $37,500. Their own books show for the year 1938 that the company grossed $38,950 for the year 1938. Why not base your opinion on these facts? Your city council and the engineers employed by them are simply trying to place before you the actual facts as found by statistics which have been compiled over a period of years, by experience of other communities of our own size which have been through this trying experience and by figures furnished us by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission and an actual survey of the present system in the city. Your city council is your representative body and they are doing everything in their power to give you a true picture of this proposition.

Respectfully yours,
George A. Granger,
City Manager.

SNOWMAN BUILDING CONTEST ENDS THIS WEEK

Boys and girls, this is your last chance to take part in the snowman building contest. Saturday of this week, all snowmen will be judged, so if you have started a snowman that has not been completed, it will be to your advantage to finish it immediately. Only completed snowmen will be eligible in this contest. Anyone else who may like to get in on this public spirited contest stop at the Shoppenagons Inn and register. This is Winter Sports Carnival week and all snowmen will add color to the festivities. So come on boys and girls, let's put this over with a bang! Remember those cash awards are waiting for you.

Grayling boys and girls, join the Boy Scouts in putting this worthy program on, and any assistance offered by Grayling merchants or other folks will crystallize their ambitions.

Announcement of winners in this contest will be made in this paper next week.

There are some fine snowmen under construction about town. Great effort has been made by these boys and girls and it has been quite discouraging at times for some of the contestants. Some unethical individuals find glory in destroying the hard work of the boys and girls.

Remember, this is a Grayling Boy Scout project, and all other boys and girls participating.

City Council Proceedings

RECORD OF CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Special meeting held on the tenth day of January A. D. 1939, Grayling, Mich.

Meeting called to order by Mayor George Burke.

Councilmen present: Burke, Milnes, Roberts, Sales, Jensen, Absent: None.

The meeting was called to consider the adoption of an emergency health ordinance.

Dr. Clippert, Dr. Stealy, School Nurse Gorman and Health Officer Bissonette were present.

Moved by Burke, supported by Milnes that Ordinance No. 8 entitled "An Ordinance to Provide for Isolation and Quarantine of Infectious and Contagious Diseases Within the City of Grayling" be accepted, approved and adopted.

The City of Grayling Ordains:

That whereas there now exists within the City of Grayling a dangerous epidemic of scarlet fever, measles and septice sore throat, and

Whereas it is the opinion of the Common Council of said City, sitting as the Board of Health thereof that a state of emergency exists and that drastic steps are necessary to stop the spread of said diseases for the protection of the health of the inhabitants of said City,

Now Therefore it is Ordained as follows:

1. That from and after the effective date hereof the health officer of said City shall isolate all cases and suspected cases of hemolytic streptococcus sore throat and shall place a placard on the premises in which any such case or suspected case may be. That all such cases and suspected cases occurring within said City shall be reported to the health officer thereof, who shall cause to be taken throat cultures from all such cases and suspected cases and have the same submitted to the laboratory of the Michigan Department of Health and if such cultures are found to be positive for hemolytic streptococcus sore throat, then every such case shall remain isolated until throat cultures taken therefrom and submitted as aforesaid shall become negative or until such time that a duly qualified physician shall determine such case to be no longer infectious.

2. That any person within said City who shall refuse to remain isolated after the placing of a placard by said health officer on the premises in which such person may be, or who shall leave such premises before such placard is removed, and any person entering such placarded premises except those legally entitled so to do, and any parent or other person having the custody of any child or children who shall fail to report any case or suspected case of scarlet fever, measles, or hemolytic streptococcus sore throat, and any other person violating the terms of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as hereinafter set forth.

DEPT. OF STATE

STATE NEWS BULLETIN

Kelly Warns March First Auto Tag Deadline

With the deadline approaching when the 1938 license plates will no longer be legal, Harry F. Kelly, Secretary of State, points out that over 5,000 automobile titles, lost by their owners in the past, are being held by the Department until their owners realize their loss and inquire for them.

If the correct addresses were known, these titles would of course be sent to their owners, but the file of "lost titles" contains only those which postal authorities have returned after not being able to deliver because of faulty addresses given by applicants for titles.

Kelly points out that annually thousands of people are frustrated for a time at least by a frantic search for their car titles which they must present when they apply for plates.

With well over 1,200,000 motor vehicles still without their 1939 license plates and the deadline set by law at midnight, February 28, Kelly points to an inevitable jam at every Department of State Branch Office in the State at the end of this month. He stresses the fact that the 1937 legislature designated the last day of February as the final date for plate or permit purchase each year and neither the Secretary of State nor any other official of the State or municipal officer has any discretionary power to extend the date permitting the use of 1938 plates. He suggests that those deferring their purchase of plates through necessity make certain at this time that they have their titles available.

Motorists are urged to purchase their plates as early as possible to avoid the discomforts of standing in line. Half-year plates are now on sale at all Branch Offices of the Department of State.

Motorists are urged to purchase their plates as early as possible to avoid the discomforts of standing in line. Half-year plates are now on sale at all Branch Offices of the Department of State.

Because automobile drivers in the country have been aroused to the need of safe driving, America reduced its automobile fatalities in 1938 by at least 7,500. Accurate figures are not yet available but the first 11 months of '38 showed that reduction.

All you readers have helped to establish this fine record. The saving of 7,500 lives proves that by concentrated effort a further reduction is possible in 1939.

That is your job. Safety is an individual problem. States, counties, and cities can inaugurate safety programs but actual application of safe driving is the responsibility of the man behind the wheel.

Safety is 99% commonsense—accidents are 99% thoughtless hurry.

It's smart to drive carefully.

Jail for not to exceed ninety days or by both such fine and imprisonment within the discretion of the Court.

Moved and supported that the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried.

MOPS SIMPLIFY CARE OF FLOORS

Wood floors with fine finishes, such as shellac, varnish or floor seal, combined with wax, should never be scrubbed with water. Sweeping or dry mopping should be all that is necessary, it appears from information gathered by the agricultural extension service of Michigan State College.

To make a good dry floor mop, the forest products laboratory of the U. S. Department of Agriculture recommends barely dampening a soft cotton mop with a mixture consisting of three parts of kerosene and one part of paraffin oil. When the mop becomes dirty, it should be washed in hot soap and water, dried, and again dampened with the mixture of kerosene and paraffin oil.

Exceptional patches of dirt that cannot be removed in this way may be taken off by rubbing the area lightly with fine steel wool moistened with turpentine. Where the finish is one of the new floor seals, badly soiled spots, such as gray spots where water has stood on the floor for a time, can be sanded by hand, patched with seal, and buffed with a pad of steel wool. Then, if the rest of the floor is waxed, the spotted areas should be waxed.

Varnish finish, if kept in good condition, offers protection against water scars; but if it does become stained it is not so easily repaired.

The wood experts of the forest products laboratory recommend renewing a wax finish every 4 to 6 months, depending on the amount of wear on the floor.

Health & Hygiene

REPEATED COLDS

Mrs. J.D.M. writes that her 7-year-old girl was ill last winter with pneumonia and this spring had the whooping cough. An X-ray shows enlarged lymph nodes of the chest. This summer she is improving, but has a fresh cold every few weeks, with cough and fever.

Mrs. M. wishes to know what can be done to build up the child's resistance. Would an immune serum or vaccine be of value? She wishes to establish some immunity so that the child will not become seriously ill during the coming winter.

In this climate there are large numbers of these small children whose resistance to upper respiratory infection is so greatly diminished that every mild cold becomes a major illness. A child of this type should play quietly in the sunshine two to four hours daily, resting both in the morning and afternoon, as well as sleeping 10 to 12 hours at night. In some instances, the child is kept in bed throughout the day and night until the weight has increased and fever and cough have disappeared.

The removal of areas of local infection, such as diseased tonsils and adenoids, which carry infection from one cold to the next will diminish the susceptibility to colds. It is assumed that the urine examination is negative and that the teeth are not diseased. Should there be a susceptibility to asthma or hayfever in the family, this should be taken into consideration when the child is examined by the physician.

Another point is food. The child should have an abundance of calcium, iodine and iron. This can be obtained from menus containing milk, eggs, vegetables, fruits, calves livers two or three times weekly or the iron and iodine may be given by the family pediatrician as medication.

An alternative in managing these children is to remove them to a southern climate for one or two winters. There are no serums or vaccines which can supplant rest, good food and the elimination of local infections in the throat. The child should not be permitted to play until she is physically exhausted. The radical measure of putting the child to bed, while a severe form of treatment, gives excellent results in the shortest possible time and does not preclude fresh air and sunshine.

Boy Scout Week Offers Tribute To Daniel Beard

More than any other man, 88-year-old Daniel Carter Beard has been the inspiration for American Boy Scouts, now observing their annual "week." Pioneer woodsman, artist, author, friend of youth, "Uncle Dan" Beard is the only man to receive the Boy Scout golden eagle badge. He is one of three men to be awarded the Roosevelt gold medal for distinguished service. Years ago, when the Scout movement struggled in infancy, Dan Beard was one of the men who got behind it and pushed.

Last summer's birthday party for Dan Beard at Suffern, N. Y., his home, was a tribute to the modern Scout's regard for "Uncle Dan." A human birthday cake, shown above, was one feature of the party. Mr. Beard was originator and founder of the first Boy Scout society from which the English scouts and others were modeled. Though many people forget he is an artist, "Uncle Dan" has done illustrations for many newspapers, magazines and books.

Dan Beard attributes his good health at 88 to the right kind of living. Above, surrounded by friends, the nation's oldest Boy Scout is being congratulated by another youth enthusiast, Col. Theodore Roosevelt. This year's Boy Scout week is a tribute to "Uncle Dan," not because he is being remembered more than usual, nor because he is taking special interest in the week's activities, but because this nation-wide youth organization might not be celebrating were it not for his life-long sponsorship of the work.

POTPOURRI

Vanilla

The vanilla plant is an herb and belongs to the family of climbing orchids. It thrives for about 50 years. The fruit of the vanilla plant is a round bean, 6 to 10 inches long. These pods are picked before ripe, dried and then fermented. The latter process produces the flavor and smell of vanilla.

Grayling Wins From Mancelona, 24 to 15

Grayling High gained a revenge victory over Mancelona and at the same time moved into a tie with Boyne City for the conference leadership as the Green and White took a 24 to 15 decision from the boys from Antrim last Friday night and Boyne with four wins and a defeat each, climbed atop the heap. Boyne's one loss was a two-time overtime defeat by Grayling, and Grayling lost to Mancelona before Christmas. The tie was at stake in the game played at Grayling Tuesday night of this week.

Coach Cornell's boys lost no time in piling up a lead on Mancelona's big rangy team. It was 6-0 at the quarter and 15-5 at the half. Both teams scored four points in the third period, and Mancelona spurred in the fourth to make a bid for victory. They pulled the score up to 13 to 19 at one time but weren't able to climb any more and dropped nine points behind as the game ended. Grayling was master of the situation clear through and deserved to win. Mancelona won the Reserve game in the second half. After a 6-6 count at the half they went on to a 20 to 8 victory.

VISIT COLLEGE TOWN

Snow Queen Frances Entsminger and the members of her court, Pauline Merrill, Norberta Weiss, Roberta Austin, Gloria LaMotte and Hazel Wilkins spent last Thursday afternoon and evening in Mt. Pleasant. The girls were guests of Queen Frances' sister Pauline, who is a student at Central State Teachers College. The girls dressed in their snow togs with banners proclaiming who they were, were given a royal welcome in the college town. They were entertained and feasted and Queen Frances says "She doesn't think they will ever get over talking about the nice time they had". The young ladies in turn spread a lot of propaganda about Grayling's Winter Sports Park and the approaching carnival.

The young ladies were taken on the trip through the courtesy of Amos Hunter, proprietor of Grayling Dairy.

FACTS about the Municipal Plant Question

TO THE CITIZENS OF GRAYLING . . .

In the Grayling paper of Thursday, February 2nd, 1939, there appeared on the front page (and also in folder form distributed about town) under the heading "PUBLIC NOTICE" an article purporting to give you "straight facts and figures about the proposed municipal owned electric light and power plant", as found by the engineers employed by the city councilmen.

We wish to advise you that some of the figures and conclusions given therein are grossly inaccurate and untrue—possibly misstated in an effort to make it appear that the proposed plant would "clear an $8,000.00 profit per year". We know the figures to be untrue because they are figures about our business which are a matter of public record.

Several of the paragraphs following item No. 14, of the newspaper and folder article, are the ones which should be studied most carefully and really dug into. Please note particularly the following paragraphs appearing in the article referred to, which are reprinted below and marked (a), (b), (c), for convenient reference.

—This is What They Claim—

- "The revenue of the present system as shown by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission's report is approximately $38,000.00 per year. Assuming that the City would have only 80 percent of the customers and using the present rate structure the revenue to the city would be $30,400.00 per year."
- "To operate, maintain and pay off the bonds and interest as it falls due on the plant will require the sum of $27,000.00 per year. In other words, the City would clear an $8,000.00 profit per year on the plant if the present rates were used."
- "The engineers on this project recommend a reduction in rates thereby doing away with a part of the $8,000.00, but passing on to the people of Grayling an immediate benefit and still allowing the city to make a profit."

The first sentence of the above paragraph (a) states that "The revenue of the present system as shown by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission's report is approximately $38,000.00 per year". That is not true, and the correct figures should have been known to whoever prepared the article because the engineers' report, from which the figure is claimed to have been taken, shows on Plate No. 1 the correct total revenue figures of our company in Grayling for each of the years 1930-1937 inclusive, as they were reported to the State Commission. These total revenue figures for the 8 years shown in the engineers' report are given below for your information and reference:

Year	Total Revenue
1930	$30,578.07
1931	$31,719.79
1932	$29,979.88
1933	$27,769.41
1934	$29,399.22
1935	$31,671.15
1936	$31,920.00
1937	$34,550.00

Please note that the revenue for 1937 was the largest of the 8 years shown and was only $34,550—not "approximately $38,000.00", as claimed in the article. That is a discrepancy of only a few thousands to be sure, but a few thousand dollars one way or the other can make a tremendous difference, as will be pointed out.

Please note also that during the 8 years for which total revenue figures are shown above, there were years when the total revenue was very substantially less than in 1937. It will always be true that when general business conditions are poor, electric revenues will suffer the same as other kinds of business, and if those who want a municipal light plant in Grayling are figuring that their revenue will always continue to increase, and never go down, they are making a very bad mistake.

Next, please note that the last sentence of the paragraph marked (a) assumes that should the city plant have 80% of the customers, with the present rates, they would have $35,000 of revenue per year.

That is incorrect because—

In the first place — 80% of $38,000 is not $35,000, it is only $30,400. That is another small discrepancy of a few thousand dollars.

In the second place — as already pointed out, there isn't any $38,000 of total yearly revenue to start with. There was only $34,550 for 1937, and 80% of that is only $27,640 instead of the $35,000 yearly revenue the city is counting on. So even IF they got 80% of the revenue they would not have the $8,000 profit they claim, but after taking out the yearly operating and bond charges, which they admit will be $27,000 (read (b) paragraph) there would remain only $640—and they would have that much only IF they should get 80% of the business—and IF every other estimate of the engineers is exactly right—and IF they should have no unlooked for breakdowns or accidents or bad luck—and a good many other ifs. But that is not all by any means because—

In the third place—they have no assurance whatever that a city plant would get 80% of the revenue or anything like it. As a matter of fact, they would be fortunate if they got as much as 50% of the business, which is about the average when municipal plants go into competition with existing utilities.

In the fourth place — Please figure out with us what would happen should Grayling build the proposed plant and get only 50% of the business. Also, please bear in mind that they might easily get still less than 50%. The Company's total 1937 revenue was $34,550. Our 1938 revenue was not reported to the State Commission when the city's engineers got the figures for the other years, but we will tell you that it was $35,197, and since that is slightly more favorable to the municipal side of the question, let us use that and call it $35,200. Then the city would get half of that, or $17,600 as annual revenue, which would be $9,400 short of the $27,000 the city has to have every year to meet operating expenses and bond charges. In other words, there would be a yearly loss of $9,400 instead of the $8,000 profit claimed in the city article.

The difference between $8,000 profit and $9,400 loss is $17,400 per year, and it shows that in considering a matter of this kind, or any business problem involving the question of whether there will be a profit or a loss, it is highly important to avoid the careless and erroneous handling and use of figures, whether intentional or unintentional, and to really dig into the conclusions reached to see if they are correct.

Paragraph (c) says that the city's engineers "recommend a reduction of rates, thereby doing away with a part"—of the profit they are counting on. In the foregoing it has been clearly shown that instead of any profit whatever there is much more likely to be a yearly loss of $9,400, or even more, so it appears there need be no concern about keeping profits down, but it is very plain that if the city uses lower rates they will have less annual revenue to count on, and losses will be still more.

Therefore, if those who are urging you to vote for a city plant should suggest or promise lower rates to catch votes, you may be very sure it will make failure that much more certain.

If you have not checked with your pencil the figures we have given you herein, please do so, in order that you may be as sure as we are that the proposed municipal light plant would be doomed to miserable financial failure, leaving the citizens and the city of Grayling (but not the machinery people, nor the engineers) holding the empty sack—and with a big debt still to pay off through taxes.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE WILL CONNECT FIRE TOWERS

Improving the forest fire detection system in the AuSable State Forest area, CCC enrollees of Camp Kalkaska are building a twelve mile phone line to connect directly the Deward and Pickrel Lake Fire towers.

In spite of heavy snow, which has hampered setting of the poles, the crew of twelve enrollees under direction of Devine Anderson, Jr., foreman, has the job one-third completed. It is expected that the phone line will be finished and serve the towermen during the 1939 fire season. The new line, sponsored by Field Administration Division of the Department of Conservation, will enable the two towers to check "cross shots" on fires more quickly.
